

KINSHIP GRID

Under each heading of possessive pronouns (my, your, his/her), follow the example with father and write in each block the correct kinship term. Change these sentences to Choctaw according to the instructions in parentheses.

Kinship Terms	My	Your	His/Her
father	a ki	ch i ki	i ki
mother	svshki	chishki	ishki
brother	a nakfi	ch i nakfi	i nakfi
sister	a tek	ch i tek	i tek
grandfather	vmafo	chimafo	imafo
grandmother	svpokni	chipokni	ipokni

(Translate number one sentence)

1. My brother is walking. A nakfi yvt nowa.

(Change sentence number one to past tense)

2. A nakfi yvt nowa tuk.

(Change sentence number one to future tense)

3. A nakfi yvt nowa chi.

(Negate sentence number four.)

4. His mother hears the pig. Ishki yvt shukha haklo kiyo.

(Change sentence number five to future tense.)

5. My father is working. Aki yvt toksvla chi.

(Add the word cold to water when translating sentence six.)

6. Your sister is drinking water. Chi tek vt oka kapvssa ishko.

(Change the word 'wants' to 'wants to eat' when translating sentence seven.)

7. My grandfather wants shuck bread. Umafo yvt banaha vpa bvnna.