

MATCHING OPPOSITES

Match the opposite phrases.

- | | | |
|-------------------------------------|----------|---------------------------------|
| 1. ohoyo himitta | e | a. vlla nakni nukh ak lo |
| 2. hattak chaha | f | b. iti kotoma |
| 3. ofi chunna | d | c. m i ko abeka |
| 4. m i ko achukm a ka | c | d. ofi nia |
| 5. iti balama | b | e. ohoyo sipokni |
| 6. vlla tek na yukpa | a | f. hattak kawasha |

Translate the sentences. On the second line write the opposite of the first sentence.

- Example: Aki yvt abeka. My dad is sick.
Aki yvt achukmaka. My dad is healthy; well.
7. Sv

okni yvt achukmaka. My grandmother is healthy; well.
Sv

okni yvt abeka. My grandmother is sick.

8. Takkon vt balama. The apple is fragrant.
Takkon vt shuwa. The apple is rotten.

9. Svshki yvt na yukpa. My mother is happy.
Svshki yvt nukhaklo. My mother is sad.

10. Ofi mvvt kotoma. That dog stinks.
Ofi mvvt balama. That dog smells good.