

CHAHTA ANUMPA II
Chapter Seventeen - Lesson 2

Chapter 17: Isht Bihli Anumpa (Directional Particles)

Lesson 2: Model I Sentences

Starter: Students will give the greeting, date, and weather. Students will engage in dialogue with a prepared question and give impromptu responses.

Speaker 1: Holisso apisa aboha ilvppa, abinili katohmi hosh hiyohmaya?

Speaker 2: Allow for individual responses.

Objective: Students will learn Model I sentences with new vocabulary words.

Presentation of new material: Model I Sentences

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| a) Chim ofi yvt chukka et balili tuk o? | a) Did your dog run toward the house? |
| b) Keyu, vm ofi yvt bok pit balili tuk. | b) No, my dog ran toward the river. |
| c) Nanta hosh kanchvk pila ia tuk? | c) What was going toward the barn? |
| d) Issuba lusa yosh ola minti. | d) A black horse is coming this way. |

Activity: QUESTIONS/ANSWERS

Students will read Choctaw sentences and respond with a complete Choctaw sentence using directional particles.

Closure: Teacher will call out directional particles in Choctaw and students