DIALOGUE OF QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Become efficient in asking questions in Choctaw and responding to those questions. (lawa katohmi means 'how much')

| Speaker 1:  | Katimma ish ia?   | Where are you going?                              |
|-------------|---|---|
| Speaker 2:  | Tvmaha ia li. Shulush aiitvtoba ia li.                    | I am going to town. I am going to the shoe store. |
| Speaker 3:  | Nanta chompa chi bunna?                                   | What do you want to buy?                          |
| Speaker 4:  | Shulush himona sv bvnna.                                  | I want new shoes.                                 |
| Speaker 5:  | Shulush pisa katiohmi chi bunna?                          | What kind of shoes do you want?                   |
| Speaker 6:  | Shulush lakna sv bvnna.                                   | I want yellow shoes.                              |
| Speaker 7:  | Na kanchi mvt nanta bvnna?                                | What does the clerk want?                         |
| Speaker 8:  | Vm iskvli bvnna.  | She wants my money.                               |
| Speaker 9:  | Iskvli lawa katohmi ish i shi?                     | How much money do you have?                       |
| Speaker 10: | Tvli holisso pokkoli tuchina i shi li.             | I have thirty dollars.                            |
| Speaker II: | Shulush lakna yvmmvt iskvlilawa katohmi tuk?          | How much were those yellow shoes?                 |
| Speaker 12: | Shulush lakna mvt tvli holissoawah tahlapi tuk.       | Those yellow shoes were fifteen dollars.          |
| Speaker 13: | Obalafoka okchakko ish chompach i h o ? | Will you buy blue pants?                          |
| Speaker 14: | Keyu, obalafoka okchamali svbvnna.                    | No, I want green pants.                           |
| Speaker 15: | Chi p i sa la chike! Chukka ia li.                 | I will see you. I'm going home.                   |
| Speaker 16: | Ome, chi p i sa la chike!                          | Okay, I will see you.                             |