Editor’s Note

The “Code of Ethics for the Executive and Legislative Departments of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma” was adopted in Council Bill No. 104-18, effective May 15, 2018, and included a recital that it “supersedes any previous Code of Ethics for the Legislative and Executive branch [sic].” No other Code of Ethics has been found.

Council Bill No. 48-20, effective February 11, 2020, changed the chapter numbering; therefore, the chapters are as numbered in Council Bill No. 48-20.

Council Bill No. 55-21, effective April 13, 2021, renamed the “Code of Ethics for the Executive and Legislative Departments of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma” as the “Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma Code of Ethics” and included other amendments.

Section numbers have been changed editorially as authorized by Section 5 of the Codification Authorization Act (125 Choc. Stat. §5) to avoid duplication.

Chapter 1 General

Section 1-101. Purpose

As leaders of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma, the Chief, Assistant Chief and Tribal Council Members will represent the citizens by acknowledging the values of Faith, Family and Culture. The citizens of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma are entitled to have confidence in the loyalty and integrity of their Executive and Legislative Departments. To that end, the purpose of this Code of Ethics is to establish standards for the ethical conduct and behavior of the Covered Officials. This Code is to be construed and applied in each instance, so as to accomplish its purpose of protecting the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma and its citizens from government decisions and actions resulting from, or affected by, undue influence or Conflict of Interest.
