TO APPROVE OKLAHOMA WESTERN TELEPHONE COMPANY'S APPLICATION FOR THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE WET PRAIRIE - OWTC PROGRAM

Purpose/Need of Council Bill: Oklahoma Western Telephone Company ("OWTC") is eligible for funding to provide broadband infrastructure deployment, including new infrastructure, replacing or upgrading existing infrastructure and equipment, and extending existing infrastructure and services with Federal funds within the Choctaw Nation Reservation. To receive this federal funding, the Nation must pass legislation showing its consent and support for OWTC to perform this work within the Choctaw Nation Reservation, as required by the USDA-RUS. OWTC will be providing high-speed internet services to 57 homes and 11 businesses in an area known as Wet Prairie, which is east of Hartshome, Oklahoma. This bill meets the Nation's strategic goal of achieving digital transformation to be strategically positioned in the digital economy through broadband access.
